(Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—This is a joyous day in Philadelphia. From City Hall to Germantown there is a flutter among the faithful.

Miss Karlene Ashbridge, the fair young stepdaughter of the Mayor of the city, is to be married this evening to Mr.
Schuyler Armstrong, the popular young son of the Governor's private secretary.

And so to full honor to the great occasion, Mayor Ashbridge invited everybody he knew to the wedding and he knows everybody worth knowing in official life.

All the great politicians of the town were asked and hundreds of those who are still among the minnows of political life. Judges, Senators, members of the City Council, clerks, street-cleaners, Coroners, court officers and bailiffs were included in the Mayor's hospitable call.

PRESENTS GALORE.
The result has been astonishing. City employees are fairly tumbling over each other to surpass in magnificence their gifts to the bride.

The forty members of the higher branch of the City Council contributed $10 apiece. The 16 members of the "lower house" were taxed $5 each for an appropriate present.

The police captains hustled for coats and gathered in enough from the "willing workers" of the force to purchase a $500 piano. But these large gifts were not a circumstance to the myriad smaller ones.

Most of the gifts wanted to have their "cards" go with the gifts, and it is a whimsical fact that the engravers in the big stores have been engraving

MISS KARLENE ASHBRIDGE of Philadelphia.

visiting cards for men who never used them before.

STREET BLOCKED.

All day yesterday the quiet street on which the undertaker-Mayor lives was thronged so thickly with express and delivery wagons that all other traffic had to go around.

This morning the blockade was resumed. Delinquent drivers, learning that they were being outstripped, hustled to the stores with anxious faces, and the special delivery wagons were soon in evidence.

The Baptist Temple, the largest edifice in the city, has been hired for the occasion, and a crush is expected there tonight which will be memorable in the annals of Philadelphia.

Rev. Russell H. Conwell will perform the ceremony.

GERMAN EDITOR DEAD.

Dr. Friedrich, former President of German Press Club, died of Bright's Disease.

Dr. John Friedrich died of Bright's disease at 481 Ninth street, Brooklyn, today.

He was prominent in German circles and at one time printed the German newspaper in Brooklyn and was a member of the New York and German Press Clubs. He was President of the German Press Club for a long time.

He was married twice and leaves two daughters and one daughter.

POLICEMAN A PRISONER.

Accused of Clubbing Man and Wife When Serving
Warrants.

Policeman Theodore Butcher, of the Stagg street station, Brooklyn, was a prisoner in the Adams Street Court this morning charged with assault by Henry Brin and his wife Rosa, of 73 Varot street.

The Brins declared that when the policeman served warrants of arrest on them some days ago he clubbed and threatened them with a revolver. The couple were accused of beating Benjamin Shapiro, an evangelist, but the charge was dismissed. Butcher was paroled until Monday.

BROMO FOR MOLINEUX.

Package Sent to Condemned Prisoner in Sing Sing.

A small package addressed to Roland R. Molineux was received this morning at the office of Sing Sing Prison. It was handed to William Johnson, who takes charge of all such things.

The Warden opened it and found a bottle of what looked like bromo-seltzer.
A message was written on the package.
It was as follows:

"Give this to Molineux and tell him to breech up."

Warden Johnson turned the package over to Dr. Irvine, the prison physician, who from a superficial examination couldn't tell whether the package contained anything of a poisonous or harmful nature. Dr. Irvine said he did not see any reason to have the chemist analyze.

Warden Johnson said he would do nothing about the matter. The package, it is thought, was probably sent by some other boy of other person ignorant of the customs at the prison who thought it would be a shock to Molineux to open a box and find bromo-seltzer inside.
As a matter of fact, nothing thus sent to a prisoner condemned to die would be delivered to him, nor would he be told anything about it.

To Save the Palladium.
ALBANY, March 7.—In the House today Mr. Davis's bill appropriating $10,000 for the preservation of the scenery of the Palladium, passed without dissent.

The Governor is to appoint a commission of ten to carry out the work.

Re-Upholstering Department.

Rescued from the Attic. Redeemed from the Plunder-room. Reclaimed from Ruin. That's how the Re-Upholstering organization is carrying out its mission—saving Furniture from the destroying influence of age and service. It's an Eldorado for hairdresses and antiques: Almost every home holds a sofa, a chair, or some other article that is cherished for its associations and the memories it evokes.

However, time and use mark it with their corroding touch. No need to relegate it to obscurity. We are ready to renovate and remake it.

All kinds of Furniture worn threadbare, lacking in style and strength, faded in beauty and grace—offensive to good taste—quickly and economically restored to original durability and freshness.

Our people combine the fancy of artists with the skill of artisans. They never slur, never slight their tasks. Thorough attention devoted to details.
Great varieties of tapestries, damasks, velours and matelasses, from which you may choose. The Macy prices for materials and workmanship cannot be equalled. That has been ascertained by repeated tests.

Let Us Make Your Furniture Slips.

Protect your Furniture during the Summer months. Before closing the house and starting on the warm-weather outing don't think you've been frugal by having surrounded the Furniture in Sheets instead of slipping it into dust-defying Slips. On your return you'll discover your plan of economy a misnomer. But that won't save the Furniture from the ravages of dust. The right way is the thrifty way. Select from our assortment of fabric and let us make your Furniture Slips. Big values in striped linen, figured and striped cotton damask and art ticks. Our prices range a third less than elsewhere.

Beds and Bedding—Annex.

These bargains in Brass and Bronze Beds are possible because we took the entire stock of a well-known manufacturer at prices. In this instance "at prices" signifies under prices. The savings we secured are generously shared with you.

MILIE RIVA, Famous French Coiffeuse.

GEO. N. THATCHER, Prominent Railway Official.

These who are losing their hair or have lost it, are told to use a remedy that is a remedy that is not free to all. A Cincinnati firm has concluded that the best way to convince people that their hair can be grown on any head is to let them try it, and see for themselves. All sorts of theories have been advanced to account for falling hair, but, after all, it is the remedy we are after and not the theory. People who need more hair, or are anxious to save what they have, or from sickness, dandruff or other causes have lost their hair, should at once send their name and address to the Cincinnati, Medical Dispensary, 1241 Boston-South Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio, including a recent clasp to every patient, and they will forward promptly, by mail, a sufficient free trial package of their remedy to fully prove the remarkable action in quickly removing all traces of dandruff and scalp diseases and growing a new growth of hair.
